Description

The magnificent northern Catskill Mountains offer vistas of scenic beauty for visitors of the legendary land of "Rip Van Winkle". Artists and writers have long been inspired by the majesty of this area. After a day on the peaceful Hudson River it becomes apparent from where their inspirations came. This is our northern most tour of the Hudson River and we expect this to become a favorite trip, because of the beauty of this area. Come with an explorers spirit as we discover some of the hidden areas unavailable to larger boats. The town of Catskill offers nice places to pick up breakfast before our trip and dinner when we arrive back.
